2014-2015 CHARITY NOMINATIONS:

PLEASE CLEARLY MARK X IN THE BOX FOR THE CHARITY OF YOUR CHOICE

Charity Name	Charity Description
Kevin Bell Repatriation Trust KB	Kevin Bell Repatriation Trust aims to alleviate the financial hardship of bereaved families repatriating the body or bodies of loved one(s) who have passed away abroad in sudden or tragic circumstances back to Ireland. It is named after the late GAA player who died in a hit and run accident in America last year. www.kevinbellrepatriationtrust.com
Lollipop Day/Oesophageal Cancer Research LO	The creation of OCF and Lollipop Day was inspired by the life of Lucilla Hyland who died of oesophageal cancer in 2011. The continued aim is to raise awareness of the symptoms and improve the outcomes of patients with oesophageal cancer in honour of our dear friend. www.lollipopday.ie
Ruhama RU	Ruhama is a Dublin-based NGO that works with women affected by sex trafficking and prostitution. They provide services to help women return to a “new life.” Ruhama provides comprehensive programs, including counseling, skills-building courses, return-to-work programs, and legal assistance for these women. Ruhama is the only institution in Ireland that provides a safe-haven for women who have been “trafficked” and are trying to escape their predators. www.ruhama.ie
